

SAVE THE DATE!

Sunday, April 7, 2019, 1:00pm-3:00pm
Holbrook Town Hall -- 50 N Franklin Street
Noel King Meeting Room

This event was made possible through a grant from the Holbrook Cultural Council.

The Holbrook Historical Society is proud to present a talk by author and lecturer, Stephanie Schorow. Ms. Schorow will speak about fire history and how it shaped Boston, taking a walk down Boston's "Fire Trail" including the tale of the burning of the Ursuline convent in Charlestown in the 1830's, the Broad Street Riots and the 1872 Great Boston Fire. She will also examine the Cocoanut Grove Fire of 1942 and the invention of the first fire alarm system.